

LaVerne Adekunle

PHD. NAMED LIFETIME MISS ELITE USA

Dr. LaVerne Adekunle was crowned as Lifetime Miss Elite USA which is the Elite Brand by Philanthropist John Williams.

LaVerne's story is one of transition from intolerable life circumstances and suffering to victorious success.

Dr. LaVerne Adekunle holds her Ph.D. of Philosophy in Christian Education; she is a former Adjunct Professor at TNT Biblical Institute. The Vidalia, Georgia native of mixed ancestry. An alumna of Aeon Bible College, her heart of compassion led her into Missionary work; she then went on to major in Psychology at Cuyahoga Community College. Dr. Adekunle graduated from Cotton Boll Vo-Tech with certification in Secretarial Business, she is an certified Fitness & Nutrition Specialists from US Career Institute, and she completed the P.O.G.I.A ministerial studies in Ramstein Germany.

She is not new to pageants, winning 1st runner up for Miss Black Cleveland in Cleveland, Ohio, representing Job Corps for Women. Dr. LaVerne is also and High Chief in Ghana appointed in 2014. The royal coronation is on YouTube under her name.

Among a few of LaVerne's accolades, she was on the cover of Speak Loud Magazine, and she was featured in Equanimity Magazine, MannaExpress and Iconic Magazine. Her television appearance includes host of an infomercial web-series show called "LaVerne Make It or Break It" formally on KITV in Las Vegas under Hearon Media, and Crystal TV in Accra Ghana and Afrowood TV in Denmark, Copenhagen. She also co-produced and star in Ladies in the Pulpit and LaVerne & Steffanie Women of Ruth. LaVerne has recently earned a proclamation from the County Judge in Mississippi County and one for her awareness program from the Mayor of Franklin TN. She launched a scholarship in her name and earned the Humanitarian Award in Baltimore Maryland. As an award, winning author of both the USA and International Book Award she just won a Anthology Award for her book about her mom If Lois Was Here.

She will continue to promote her platform "Awareness of the needs of the Elderly & Special Needs Population". Her goal is to compete in Today's International Women 2018 in Tampa Florida under the sponsorship of John Williams of Come On In Inc. and laExpose' Productions.

